

Associazione Anno Uno presents:

CINEMA WITH THE YOUNG

Io, intorno a me

I, around myself

Competition for a short film – 4th edition

NOTICE OF COMPETITION – TERMS OF PARTICIPATION

Associazione Anno Uno has announced a call for entries for the fourth edition of I, around myself, its international short-film competition.

The competition is open to young people of any nationality aged under 21 in 2012.

The Competition is open to both individual and group film projects prepared either during classes or at workshops held by educators and specialists working in different socio-educational contexts (recreation centres, schools, cultural associations, youth clubs).

The I, around myself competition embraces wide-ranging subjects and gives participants the opportunity to capture and analyse different moments and experiences connected with adolescence and the perception of one's own life, and in particular in relationships with other people and society (family, school, feelings, the world of work, sports or friends).

There are no limitations in terms of style: subjects can be dealt with in either a serious or an ironic way and by means of any genre (fiction, documentary film, cartoons etc.)

The running time of films cannot exceed 30 minutes. Films shall have to be presented in DVD PAL format.

Participation is free.

A copy of the participation form shall have to be filled in and signed by the participant(s) or a parent, or the persons acting in their stead (in case the participant(s) is (are) underage) and sent together with the film work. The participation form can be downloaded at www.cinemaconigiovani.it

Postage and packing costs shall be paid by participants.

Copies of film projects shall not be returned. They shall be kept in the “Cinema with the Young” (Cinema con I giovani) video archive of the Associazione Anno Uno.

To participate in the competition, all film projects shall have to be submitted in DVD PAL format only and sent to the head office of:

Associazione culturale Anno uno
Piazza Duca degli Abruzzi 3
34132 Trieste , Italy

Films shall have to be sent by and not later than 30th August 2012 (postmark date). Film works received after that date shall not be considered.

Films shall be viewed and judged by a jury of experts appointed by the Associazione Anno Uno. The names of filmmakers and the titles of films selected for competition shall be available at www.cinemaconigiovani.it.

Each participant shall receive a participation certificate and an acknowledgement certificate. The films selected and considered noteworthy shall be screened in public venues. On that occasion, participants shall receive their certificates.
